Corporate Class

COMPANY PHILOSOPHY

Corporate Class came about through the desire to offer the best, deliver the best and be remembered as the best. Whether it be a small sales meeting with a personalised incentive programme or a full blown conference or that special gala dinner, Corporate Class has the imagination, skill and panache to carry it off so successfully that your clients or employees will remember it well beyond the moment...

Corporate Class combines English efficiency with Spanish flair which makes for a unique event management philosophy... Fly your clients or employees into Valencia, seduce, surprise, convince and ultimately impress them and fly them back to London, while keeping within a budget that would stand its ground with any London-based event.

VALENCIA

"A city with one foot in the past and the other very definitely placed in the future"

Hailed as the "New Barcelona", Valencia is just under two hours away from London and is one of Europe's best kept secrets... Situated on the shores of the Mediterranean, Valencia combines cutting edge, breathtaking Calatrava architecture, dreamy 17th century palaces, charming boutique hotels, sumptuous urban spas and authentic Mediterranean culture; Valencia offers everything that a company will need to host any kind of event. Host to the 2007 America's Cup and we haven't even mentioned Fallas... Why not let your company get caught up in this vibrant city and all under Corporate Class Valencia's expert guidance?
